

SUNDAY SERVICE NOTES FOR DECEMBER 2020

Sunday, December 6

A Religious Education Conversation

Rev. Dr. TK Barger and Interim Religious Educator Saroya King

RE Roy is still getting oriented to being our teacher. She and Rev. Tim will use the sermon time for a question-and-answer time about religious education.

Sunday, December 13

All-Music Service

Music Director Mickey Emch, Accompanist Bonnie Rowe, Toledo Unitarians & Special Guests

Twice a year, we set aside our standard service to have a time to perform and listen to music, knowing that often it's music that helps us rise into our spiritual nature. Our All-Music Service will celebrate the season with a morning of traditional songs and stories. Though we are far apart, we've enjoyed coming together remotely to celebrate the holidays musically.

Sunday, December 20

The First Birth of Jesus

Rev. Dr. TK Barger

Let's look at the story of Jesus' arrival. This is part of an ongoing series of sermons about Jesus from the viewpoint of a humanist.

Sunday, December 24

Christmas Eve Lessons and Carols

Rev. Dr. TK Barger

We'll have a Christmas Eve service that features well-known Christmas music performed between readings about the season, the baby Jesus, and our church.

Sunday, December 27

Better than Fruitcake

Commissioned Lay Minister David Strickler

We will celebrate National Fruitcake Day by considering the spiritual dimensions of this oft-derided holiday dessert. Perhaps we will even discover some connections to Unitarian Universalism.

Reverend Tim Barger

Here it is December, and we've been subject to pandemic conditions since the middle of March. At the end of December, we'll have had 42 of our 52 Sunday services in 2020 conducted online, most of them livestreamed. Church has changed. When we can come back, it will not be a return to pre-Covid ways, but adjusting to include electronics as a regular part of our Sunday services. We know that everybody won't be ready to return to in-public closeness at the same pace, so when there are in-person services we want include our web congregants. We won't be turning the corner into telUUvangelism, I don't think, but we will continue being on video. It will be special, though, when we can have greater connection even though we might continue with face coverings and fist bumps rather than wide smiles and hugs. For this month, though, and probably a few months after, we'll still be having services on YouTube, celebrating the holidays in ways we safely can, and hoping that 2020 will be behind us without it leaving too much of a mess—though it has destroyed many lives in its course. Remember the bigger story of community and celebration during the holiday season, and be safe. In Fellowship, TK

Sandra Kosek-Sills, Board President

We find ourselves at the end of an eventful year. It may seem difficult to be cheerful if one is steadfastly maintaining physical distancing as we are in our church community. The holidays will be very different. I am always and ever the optimist and I choose to be happy that we have made it to this point, and I hold out hope for the future when we can come back together again. Keep an eye out for the updated directory. This may be the year to dust off the card-sending tradition and send cards to your church friends that you might have otherwise seen in person. Let's all continue to do our part to stay apart but stay connected as we celebrate the joys of the season. Please join us online for our musical service, and for the holiday service. Stop by in coffee hour and say hello. Have a Merry Christmas, Happy Hanukkah, Happy Kwanzaa, and/or any other joyful holiday of your choosing. And here's hoping for a Happier New Year! In Fellowship, Sandra

Mickey Emch, Director of Music

Wishing everyone safe and happy holidays from the music ministry! This December, we will continue our Thursday night music fellowship at 7:30 on Zoom for all who would like to drop in. For those who are interested in being a part of our virtual performances this winter, please email Mickey at musicdirector@uutoledo.org. In fellowship, Mickey Emch

Saroya King, Interim Religious Educator

Dear First Unitarian Church: It is a privilege to work with Dr. Tim and all the Staff at First Unitarian. I'm not a stranger to the area of Religious Education. It's an exciting vocation in the Church. It has my total support. I hope to bring my experience and education and my love for Unitarian Universalism to allow the members to reinforce the notion that, "We Believe, And We Do What We Believe". I at least want to start a small, but bright burning fire on this journey. Please join us December 6th for our RE Discussion Service. RE Roy

BIPOC VIRTUAL GATHERING

If you identify as Black, Indigenous or a person of color (BIPOC), you're invited to join us for the Central East Region's BIPOC gathering happening two Mondays of the month at 6:30pm ET. ## POINSETTIA DONATIONS - THANK YOU

Poinsettia Donations: From Linda Campbell in honor of Phil Podlish, From Carol Keierleber in memory of Dawn Parsons, From Eugene and Patty Naujock in memory of their parents.

TERRACYCLE RECYCLING

In response to several questions from our members, the Zoo is still collecting Terracycle items for recycling, but only in the container at the Anthony Wayne Trail gate. The ZOOTEens still meet in small groups to sort the items. They have lost a few sponsorships so the list of items is shorter. Still collecting #6 cups, juice drink pouches, oral care items, food pouches, a few very specific pet food packaging, Brita products, inkjet laser printer cartridges, and other items. For a copy of the flyer that lists everything, contact Karen Porter, or check the collection container at the Zoo.

MINI FOOD PANTRY

Thank you for your continued support of our parking lot mini food pantry. Please remember to bring non-perishable food items and place in the Little Pantry in the parking lot. Popular foods include peanut butter, jelly, macaroni and cheese, soup, juice boxes, fruit and pudding cups, cereal, granola bars, and tuna, toothpaste, baby shampoo, soap, hygiene products, etc. Note the expiration date on the items-NO EXPIRED ITEMS MAY BE DONATED. This is a Lucas County Health Department rule. When we find expired items in the pantry box, they are disposed of. We are not allowed to pass out expired items. Please do not put expired items in the pantry box. Thank you.

CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE

Are you ready for Jingle Bells? Despite the pandemic, we are fast approaching the holidays, and there is greater need than ever. Again, as in years past, we would like to help give some clients of Sylvania Family Services (SFS) a very Merry Christmas, but it seems it will need to be a little different this year in order to ensure the safety of all. SFS has asked donors to give gift cards to the families in place of gifts and meals. As with everything these days, we are adapting. We have tried to think of some way to make this as fun as shopping for the families and wrapping those gifts, but we just cannot come up with anything but an appeal to your always generous spirits! In response to this need, we ask you to donate as you can to help these families. We have requested two families of 4-6 people each. The cost for food is estimated at $25/person, and the cost for gifts is suggested as $50/person. If you can help, please send a check made out to First Unitarian Church of Toledo to arrive by Monday, December 7th, with 'Christmas Families' on the memo line. We will purchase gift cards for our families and deliver them to Sylvania Family Services. Any gift, large or small, will be extremely welcome, and should we collect more than we need for 2 families, we will consult SFS about helping an additional family. Thank you for considering this important holiday tradition to help others in need, while giving ourselves the gift of giving. Chris Stockwell and Luanne Billstein, Co-Chairs

ST. PAUL'S COMMUNITY CENTER

We have been asked to help prepare and serve meals for Toledo's people of need at St Paul's Community Center. This can be a few hours one or two days each month or more often if you can. Contact Phil Zepp (philz@bex.net) if you could help. (See Rev Mary Sullivan's letter at the Facebook page "Unitarian Universalists of NW Ohio" for more details).

STEWARDSHIP - IMAGINING NEW POSSIBILITIES PLEDGE DRIVE

As the season of miracles and giving begins, now would be a great time to mail your pledge to First Unitarian enabling us to transform the wonderful ideas we have imagined together into reality. It is important that everyone have a vote at the annual meeting, and to do that, we need your pledge, no matter the size. Every pledge is appreciated, and you are valued at First Unitarian. We would like to wrap up the pledge drive before the holidays, so please mail your form asap. Your loyalty to First Unitarian in thought, word and deed, presence and 'presents' is deeply appreciated! We have much to be grateful for, and we will be together again! Be safe and be well! Chris Stockwell and Mike Davisson, Co-Chairs

UU MAGAZINE

December 13th is the deadline to make address adjustments to the member list that is used to mail the quarterly UU World Magazine. Are you receiving the free magazine? Please send any address corrections or additions to the church office at: carols@uutoledo.org by December 13th. Thank you

MERRY CHRISTMAS, HAPPY NEW YEAR, HAPPY HOLIDAYS TO ALL!
