

Surviving the Holocaust

Alexander J. Groth's Story of His Survival

Tuesday, November 14, 2023 6 p.m.

First Unitarian Church, 3205 Glendale, Toledo, Ohio 43614

The public is invited to learn about the Holocaust from one who was there.

Alexander J. Groth will speak at First Unitarian Church of Toledo, 3205 Glendale Ave. on Tuesday, November 14, 2023 at 6 p.m. The public is invited to this free event; no reservations are necessary. This program also can be seen on YouTube at First Unitarian Church of Toledo.

Professor Groth is a survivor of the Warsaw Ghetto and the Holocaust. He has spoken to thousands across the globe in person and on Zoom about his experiences.

He holds a Ph.D. from Columbia University and is Emeritus Professor of Political Science, University of California, Davis, where he taught comparative government for more than 30 years.

He has authored more than 100 scholarly articles and written 14 books, among which are DEMOCRACIES AGAINST HITLER (1999, 2018); HOLOCAUST VOICES (2003) and ACCOMPLICES: CHURCHILL, ROOSEVELT AND THE HOLOCAUST (2011).

This event is sponsored by the Unitarian Action committee of First Unitarian Church of Toledo to promote the Unitarian Universalist principles that compassionately affirm the inherent worth and dignity of every person. The First Unitarian Church of Toledo is located at 3205 Glendale Ave. Toledo 43614. For more information, contact Judy Paschalis at judykp@bex.net and phone or text 419-346-4895.
